

WORKMEN'S

COMPENSATION ACT 1984

EMPLOYERS' RIGHTS

- When an accident happens, SEND your injured workers to the doctor or hospital. You are required to pay all the medical fees and expenses

- You are required by law to TAKE UP workmen's compensation insurance for all your workers.
- Be sure to report ALL ACCIDENTS involving your workers to Department of Labour.

- If you FAIL TO REPORT, you are LIABLE on conviction to a fine of B$4,000

WORKERS' RIGHTS

- Be sure to report your accident to your employer or supervisor as soon as possible.
- Be sure to keep ALL appointments with the doctor so that he can make accurate assessment of the extent of your injury.
- If you fail to keep your appointments with the doctor, it will lead to DELAY in getting your compensation.